

What is a Creative Photo VIP Model?

Creative Photo VIP Models are a group of 2010 Juniors who we select to “model” for our portrait samples and to help promote Creative Photos services to their classmates.

Models are selected based on an application process. We are looking for both guys and girls.

What do I get if I am selected?

You will receive one model photo session in March where we will create the images for your model cards. These cards are for you to distribute to your friends.

We also use these images for advertising and promotional pieces. You also get images for Facebook, a video/slide show of your session, an 8x10 book with your model session images, an opportunity to earn discounts on your prints, a free family photo session and opportunity to win cash awards.

What will I be expected to do?

Just three simple things.

1. Come into the studio for a short interview.
2. Participate in the free model photo session.
3. You will have discount cards to pass out to your friends to encourage them to come to Creative Photo for their Senior Portraits.

Do I get paid?

By sending your friends to Creative Photo for their Senior Portraits you will earn a $10 print credit for each of your discount cards that is used. You will also earn one point for each card that is used. Your points earn you additional CASH and prizes.

5 points – an additional 15% discount of 100 free wallets added to your package and a second 90 minute indoor and location portrait session

10 points - a framed collection print from your session

20 points – an Apple iPhone

30 points – an Apple iPad

NOTE: The prizes are not cumulative
